G. CONSENT

note_intro_co

Purpose:
Hello, my name is _____, and I work with the World Bank and Innovations for Poverty Action. Your information was provided to us by [local leader / staff from the Ministry of Agriculture]. [For participants interviewed for a second time: You might remember that we talked with you a couple months ago]. We are conducting a study about smallholder farmers in the Department of San Marcos in Guatemala. Specifically, we are trying to learn a little bit more about how women relate to agriculture.

Procedures:
We want to invite you to participate in this study by completing a telephone survey that will take approximately 20 minutes. To compensate for your time, we will send you phone credit to your phone (up to 1.25 dollars) at the end of this interview. Some participants will be selected at random to be interviewed again in about two months from now. Finally, at the end of the survey today, we will ask you if you would like to be contacted by the Ministry of Agriculture to participate in agriculture extension programs. Your participation is voluntary.

[Pause. Surveyor, ask]: Do you have any questions until now?
[Surveyor answer any questions. If there are no questions, continue with informed consent]

Confidentiality:
The information you provide will be strictly confidential and never connected to you. Other people will not know if you are in this study or what you have said. Only a few researchers will have access to this information, and all information will be stored safely and destroyed under the care of the lead researcher.

Risk and benefits:
We do not anticipate any risks associated with your participation in this study, but we hope that the results will help us understand better how women relate with agriculture in San Marcos, Guatemala.

note_intro_co   Voluntary participation:

Your participation in this study is voluntary. If you don't want to be in the study, it is OK. If you want to be in the study now and change your mind later, that's OK too. You can stop at any time. If you do choose to participate, please answer the questions honestly and openly, so that we can understand your experience and find out what you really think and have experienced.

Questions:

If you join the study, you can ask questions at any time. You may also contact Rudy Ramirez at +502 3131 0119 if you have any questions or concerns.

Do you have any questions now?

Do you understand everything I have explained?

note_keyboard2

[Interviewer]: Guide the interviewee to unfold the keyboard [Interviewer]: read the following instructions:

1. In the case of a smartphone:

Ms. {final_interviewee_name} look on your cell phone screen for a group of 9 dots.

Press on that group of points, and you will see the numbers to dial a call. That is the keyboard of your cell phone

Now listen carefully to the questions that I am going to ask you and dial in your answer after I say the word "now".

2. If the interviewee mentions that the screen is black, read the following instructions

Ms. {final_interviewee_name} now I'll end the call and call you back in a minute. Call back and try to guide her again.

3. If the interviewee mentions that she does not understand how:

Ms. {final_interviewee_name}, can you find someone nearby to teach you how to dial your cell phone keypad? After you have your cell phone keypad, we will continue with the questions. Now that you know how to dial your cell phone keypad, remember to be in a place where no other member of your household is present or could interfere with your answers.
